What Are You Doing Sunday Mornings at 9:30?

Whether you refer to it as Sunday Morning Bible Study or Sunday School, the gatherings that take place across our campus at 9:30 on Sunday mornings are vital to the life of the believer. Are you committed to this aspect of your spiritual growth?

Now, I realize almost none of our staff members are able to regularly attend these gatherings; and I do think we miss out as a result. We do, however, spend a couple hours together every Tuesday morning, and part of what we do is an awful lot like a Sunday School class. There are also those who teach in preschool, children and youth, who are not in a class with their peers. These servants are still being challenged to grow spiritually as they prepare to teach, and they are connected to an adult Sunday School class in order to be included in gatherings outside of Sunday mornings.

Consider what happens as a result of being in Sunday School:

1. Bible Study - working through the Word of God in a way that strengthens our understanding of scripture and engages our hearts with one another.
2. Prayer - interceding for one another through prayer and bearing one another's burdens.

3. Fellowship(Connection) - friendship building and strengthening with Christ at the center. This includes rejoicing and grieving with one another.

4. Service - classes can take on service projects, (like greeting, collecting for TFAC, etc.) or can provide meals or care for those in the class who are experience hardship.

Unique ministry happens within these smaller gatherings that can't happen in our corporate worship setting. And, this is true for children and students as well.

Our newest class is Sermon Remix, which utilizes biblical passages and key points from the previous week's sermon to dig deeper and work through application. This class is for ANY adult and has only been meeting since August 4th. All are welcome in room 230 @ 9:30 Sunday mornings!

There are classes for all ages and stages of life. For more information, call Kelly Schaeffer at 903-595-1021 or go to fbctyler.org under the "Ministries" tab.

Please plan to be present at one of these gatherings this Sunday!

Grateful to Be Your Pastor,

Pike

TOGETHER
WE PRAY

Together We Pray in SEPTEMBER ...for a Christ-like attitude in one another

Pray for developing a Christ-like attitude by:

- Prioritizing Christ as Lord and King, passionately living by His word each day, loving each other as He loves us, and drawing the world to Him by our love.

MATTHEW 6:33 Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.
